

Family Resemblance: 1 John 3:1-10
Your Kingdom Come
Bread of Life Church: Daniel Low (12.15.2024)

We will fully appear like Jesus once he finally appears for us.

1. The Father Anchors our Hope because our Savior Will Come Again, 3:1-3

a. What we are, 3:1

absolutely astonished and forever humbled by the Father's supreme display of love through his one and only Son, John invites us to join him in heartfelt worship

b. What we will be, 3:2-3

the more we extend our sights on the future with Jesus, the more we grow our character in the present like Jesus - hope and holiness go hand in hand

2. The Father Secures our Victory because our Savior Has Already Come, 3:4-10

a. The Son appears to break the forces of sin, 3:4-7 being rescued from the penalty and consequence of sin, Jesus also liberates us from the power and influence of sin

b. The Son appears to destroy the works of Satan, 3:8-10 the evidence that we belong to God as his children: obedience to his commands and love for his family
